From the signing of the ordinace by the Mayor until its approval or rejection by the courts, the annexation con-test will be carried on by the office of the City Attorney. Both City Attorney Bollard and Assistant City Attorney Anderson are intimately familiar with the data, claims and counterclaims that the ten-month agitation of the problem has produced, and are practically ready to appear in court.

Within a day or two after the Mayor signs the ordinance, the City Attorney will notify the Commonwealth's attorneys and the boards of supervisors of Henrico and Chesterneld Counties that he will, on a given day, not less than thirty days thereafter, move the Circuit Court of the county, wherein the greater part of the new territory lies designated to hear the case, to make an order authorizing and declaring the annexation provided for in the ordinance.

A copy of the notice and ordinance, the law provides, shall be published at least once a week for four successive weeks in a local newspaper of general circulation in the territory affected by the act. STATE ACCOUNTS CORRECT

Auditing Committee of Legislatura Pleased by New Methods.

Cause for congratulation was found yesterday by the auditing committee of the General Assembly in the condition of the accounts of the various State departments which the committee has been investigating for the list two days. The committee concluded its work yesterday afternoon. According to Chairman J. R. Jordan great improvement is noticible in the system of bookkeeping now in vogue in the departments of State government. The efficiency of the departments has been increased, says Mr. Jordan, and the accounts of each placed on a thoroughly business foundation. The auditing committee is composed of the following men: J. R. Jordan, Smithfield, chairman; Berkley D. Adams, Charlotte, Senator John A. Lessner, Norfolk, Schator A. C. Harman, Richmond; C. M. Lunsford, Botetouri.
